

Nr. 11472.38

JAVA DEVELOPMENT (M/F/D)

Location:	Wien	Job Type:	Vollzeit
Department:		Salary (gross/mnt):	At Least € 3.500

Time for a new challenge!

- Responsible for the development of the next generation of peripheral components for the route control product family
- A part of the product development team for route control
- Design, Implementation, Unit/Module Testing, Documentation of Safety Critical Software
- SW/HW integration of embedded systems
- Collaboration in an agile team
- Working in an international team

Skills are the key!

- Technical Degree preferably in Informatics, Computer Science, Software Engineering or similar
- At least 2 years of relevant experience and technical expertise
- SW development: Java SE
- SW/HW integration: embedded systems
- Continuous build and integration (Gerrit, Git, svn, Eclipse, Maven, ...) as user
- LINUX knowledge: networking, bash-scripting, gnu toolchain
- Experience with the full lifecycle of a software development project: design and documentation, development, unit testing, refactoring, deployment and maintenance. Experience in agile methodology an advantage
- High level of English; German is an advantage and innovative, adaptable and customer-oriented team player

These are the benefits!

- Long-term career planning
- Interesting and challenging job in an internationally successful company
- Competent team
- Motivating working atmosphere
- Monthly gross salary: from € 3.500 (depending on qualifications and experience)

Are you interested in this position, offering outstanding development possibilities and are you ready to enter a continuously growing, internationally operating company? Accept the challenge!

Contact Person:

Dipl. Ing. Christian Wurm
Tel: +43 (1) 6988880-38
Location: Wien

Please submit the application at

<https://www.ivm.at/jobsite>

